

Each egg on the map marks the location of an Egg Chase poster.

Write down the letters printed on the golden eggs and re-arrange them to find a three-word Easter-related answer.

If you can work it out then you've earned yourself a treat!
(Treats are located at the green egg).

The words on the eggs are just to inspire you this Easter! 😊

Use the clues (or the map if it's easier!) to work out the locations of the eggs and plan your own route. Write down the letters printed on the golden eggs on the posters and re-arrange them to find a three-word Easter-related answer.

If you can work it out then you've earned yourself a treat!

The big words on the eggs are just to inspire you this Easter!

Clue	Location?	Golden egg letter
You can hire this hall for ball games and fun or come to the café for a drink and a bun.
Pat and Jess come here in their van to collect letters and parcels whenever they can.
You would have come here to make a phone call, It was used much more when your grandparents were small.
This is a place where bees make honey. They also make candles, well isn't that funny?
A road in the village, maybe for all the dogs? Or you could follow the river and chase some logs?
With vinegar, mushy peas, or curry sauce to eat you can come here for a fishy Friday treat.
The only building in the village with this kind of roof - did the first little pig help to make it waterproof?
While waiting here for the 51 to arrive or depart, you'll find information about events at the village's heart.
This is an office to which you should roam to get a good baaa-gin when buying a home.
There once was a spire but now just a tower where doves live and a big clock chimes on the hour.
The house with iron railings on Silver Street is your final destination to collect your prize treat.

ANSWER : _____