to the glory of God the Father.

Peter Bennett following his funeral.

Kay Winfield following her funeral.

Naomi Lugg as her ashes are interred.

The family and friends of Stephen Isles as they prepare for his funeral.

The family and friends of Mary Gurney as they prepare for her funeral.

All who live in Chiffchaff Close.

All who are seeking God's intervention, guidance or healing in their lives.

I weave a silence on my lips,
I weave a silence into my mind,
I weave a silence within my heart.
I close my eyes to distractions,
I close my eyes to attentions,
I close my heart to temptations
Calm me O Lord as you stilled the storm,
Still me O Lord, keep me from harm.
Let all the tumult within me cease,
Enfold me, Lord, in your peace.

THY KINGDOM COME 2022

Join a great wave of prayer. 26th May – 5th June 2022.

Archbishops Justin and Stephen are inviting all worshipping communities to pray 'Thy Kingdom Come' during the period between Ascension and Pentecost. They would like all Christians to pray by name for five people to come to faith in Jesus. The Archbishops said, "So let us once again pray 'Come, Holy Spirit' together: that God's Kingdom might Come, that we would know the empowering of the Church as witnesses, and for many more family, friends, colleagues and neighbours to come to living faith in Christ Jesus."

Over these 11 days of prayer, there are lots of resources to help guide personal prayer and reflection. Visit the Thy Kingdom Come website for the latest resources.
